GOVERNMENT OF INDIA
SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT
LOK SABHA

UNSTARRED QUESTION NO:6701
ANSWERED ON:10.05.2002
BEGGARY PREVENTION SCHEME
GOWDAR MALLIKARJUNAPPA;SHASHI KUMAR

Will the Minister of SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Government of Karnataka has submitted a proposal for Central SectorScheme for Beggary Prevention furnishing of fresh proposals/utilization certificate under reference D.O.No.12-3/98-SD, dated April 22, 1998 to the Union Government;

(b) if so, whether under the scheme, the Government of Karnataka had proposed forsanction of recurring grants in respect of seven Work Centres at the rate of Rs.2.52 lakhs per centre, totally Rs.17.64 and Rs. 7.04 lakhs towards setting up oftwo new Work Centres;

(c) if so, whether the Union Government have released the amount;

(d) if not, the main reasons therefor; and

(e) the time by which it is likely to be released?

Answer

THE MINISTER OF SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT (DR. SATYANARAYAN JATIYA)

(a) to (e) With the abolition of the Central Sector Scheme for Beggary Prevention witheffect from 1998-99, no funds are being released to any State Government including the Government of Karnataka.